

3.3.1 The institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and the creation and transfer of knowledge, supported by dedicated centers for research, entrepreneurship, community orientation, incubation, etc.

Response:

The college has created an ecosystem for innovations, including an innovation and incubation center, various research centers, and other initiatives for creating and transferring knowledge. The college has a Research Advisory Committee and an Academic Research Coordinator (ARC) to inculcate a research culture and attitude among the students and teachers.

1. Research Centre:

The college has 6 research centers for Ph.D. and 14 faculty members are recognized as Research Guides.

Publications:

College staff members take a keen interest in research activities. 23 research papers are published by the faculties in reputed National and International Journals. Besides, faculty members published 07 books/chapters in edited volumes/books.

Patents:

One Patents were published during this period.

2. Seed Money:

Faculty staff members are provided with financial support to conduct their research activities. Two teachers have been sanctioned the research project with funds Rs. 55,000/- (Fifty-five Thousand Only) for their research.

3. IPR and Research Activities:

In this academic year, one seminars were conducted on Intellectual property rights to raise awareness about research among the students and staff members. The college also organized a one-day workshop on "Research Student Meet" to strengthen the bond between the research center and students.

4. MoUs and Linkages

The College has established Linkages/Collaborations and MoUs for research, faculty exchange/internship/student exchange, etc.

5. The Innovation and Incubation Center has organized three competitions: the Intercollegiate Innovative Model Competition, and the Elocution Competition. Innovation and Incubation Centre also organized an Expert lecture on Scientific Attitude.

6. The Avishkar Committee organized the "Avishkar Project Competition". Selected also sent to Avishkar Competition at zonal, University, etc levels. Financial assistance is made available for students to make a model/ poster and travel to participate at various Avishkar competition levels.